IMPORTANT INFORMATION PLEASE REVIEW CAREFULLY

Dear [REDACTED]:

The privacy and security of the personal information we maintain is of the utmost importance to Nth Degree. We are writing with important information regarding a recent data security incident that involved some of your information. We want to provide you with information about the incident, explain the services we are making available to you, and let you know that we continue to take significant measures to protect your information.

What Happened?

We recently discovered that an unauthorized party gained access to our network environment.

What Are We Doing?

Upon learning of this issue, we immediately worked to contain the threat and secure our network environment. We commenced a prompt and thorough investigation into the incident and worked very closely with external cybersecurity professionals experienced in handling these types of situations to help determine whether any personal or sensitive data had been accessed or acquired as a result of this incident. After an extensive forensic investigation and manual document review, we discovered on March 24, 2025 that your personal information may have been accessed or acquired by an unauthorized party between on or around December 12, 2024 to on or around December 20, 2024.

What Information Was Involved?

The information potentially involved included your [REDACTED]

What You Can Do?

We have no reason to believe that your information has been or will be used to commit financial fraud or identity theft as a result of this incident. Nevertheless, we are offering a complimentary twelve months membership of Single Bureau Credit Monitoring/Single Bureau Credit Report/Single Bureau Credit Score through TransUnion. These services provide you with alerts for twelve months from the date of enrollment when changes occur to your credit file. This notification is sent to you the same day that the change or update takes place with the bureau. Finally, we are providing you with proactive fraud assistance to help with any questions that you might have or in event that you become a victim of fraud. These services will be provided by Cyberscout, a TransUnion company specializing in fraud assistance and remediation services. With this protection TransUnion will help you resolve issues if your identity is compromised.

This letter also provides other precautionary measures you can take to protect your personal information, including placing a fraud alert and/or security freeze on your credit files, and/or obtaining a free credit report. Additionally, we recommend that you always remain vigilant in reviewing your financial account statements and credit reports for fraudulent or irregular activity on a regular basis.
